

Nashville, TN

COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME MUSEUM: There's no better place to begin your stay at Nashville than the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum. Inside the magnificent structure, you will find a celebration of the evolution and legacy of country music. Catch a view of this museum from the sky and you'll notice that it is shaped like a bass clef!

GRAND OLE OPRY: Wouldn't want to visit Nashville without it's most renowned concert hall and auditorium. The Grand Ole Opry showcases all kinds of different country, blugrass, folk, comedy, and even Gospel music. It's no surprise that this is known as Country Music's "Most Famous Stage"!

BELLE MEADE PLANTATION: Want something unique and historic on your trip? Bring your group to the over 150 year old Belle Meade Plantation and Mansion. This historic location is renowned for it's breeding of champion thoroughbred horses and for having survived the Civil War. You'll not want to miss this!

GENERAL JACKSON SHOWBOAT: Looking for a unique entertainment experience. Come aboard the beautiful General Jackson Showboat where you can have dinner provided if you wish as well as a good ole' Nashville Country Show onboard!

OTHER ACTIVITIES: Looking for more activities, your group can spend some free time in downtown Nashville where they can see the Music City

Walk of Fame, River Front Park and the amazing Gruhn Guitar Shop.

There's something for everybody at Nashville!
